

MANAGEMENT POLICY STATEMENT

The strategic GOAL of Kozloduy NPP EAD is the safe, efficient, and environmentally friendly generation of energy, under long-term operation conditions and guaranteed quality and security of supplies, in compliance with national and international standards.

To achieve this goal, the management implements integrated Management System that brings together all the requirements to the activities in line with the following priorities:

The Highest Level of Safety

- Nuclear safety and radiation protection
- Development of leadership and a Management System to ensure safety
- Ensuring health and safety at work, fire safety, and environmental protection
- Sustaining and continuously enhancing safety culture
- Physical protection of nuclear installations, nuclear material, and radioactive substances
- Safe management of nuclear fuel and radioactive waste
- Maintaining public trust

Licensed, Competent, and Motivated Personnel

- Career development opportunities
- Continuous learning and qualification enhancement
- Continuity and preservation of knowledge

Effective and Competitive Generation

- Optimising the production process
- Sustaining high levels of equipment reliability
- Proactive ageing management of structures, systems, and components
- Development and modernisations

Financial Stability

- Sustainable revenues, market expansion
- Cost optimisation, high profitability
- Effective control

The personal input, professionalism, and commitment of the management and of each member of the Company staff are a strong guarantee for the successful accomplishment of the set goals.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER
IVAN ANDREEV