

KOZLODUY NPP EAD SECURITY MANAGEMENT POLICY

The Security Management Policy of Kozloduy NPP EAD focuses on the protection of nuclear facilities, nuclear material, and radioactive substances from external and internal threats.

THE SECURITY MANAGEMENT POLICY OF KOZLODUY NPP EAD AIMS AT ACHIEVING THE FOLLOWING OBJECTIVES:

- Prevention of unauthorised removal, theft, and other illegal seizures of nuclear and radioactive materials
- Protection of nuclear installations, nuclear material, and radioactive substances against sabotage
- Detection and neutralisation of violators
- Mitigating the consequences of sabotage
- Localisation and regaining control over missing nuclear or radioactive material
- Maintaining the Management System consistent with the provisions of GSR Part 2 Leadership and Management for Safety, applicable legal and regulatory requirements, and accepted requirements of stakeholders.

THE FOLLOWING PRINCIPLES UNDERLIE THE SECURITY MANAGEMENT IN THE COMPANY:

- Abiding by the legal obligations in terms of security
- Nuclear security risk analysis and management
- Protection of confidential information
- Maintaining of security and response forces
- Emergency response preparedness
- Strengthening nuclear security culture.

Kozloduy NPP EAD managers at all levels are committed to ensuring and enhancing the security of nuclear facilities, nuclear material, and radioactive substances from external and internal threats, in line with the safety objectives and the promotion of nuclear security culture, and to contributing to the effectiveness of the Company's Management System.

The Security Management Policy is communicated to all of the Company's employees and each and every one of them is responsible for the implementation of its principles in their efforts towards achieving the set objectives.